Harvard Negotiators:

“Although only founded in 2005, one of Harvard Negotiator’s past clients was the government of Nepal—how’s that for an important patron. As one might guess, Harvard Negotiators provides assistance, training, and advice related to negotiation and alternative dispute resolution. It identifies and works with client organizations around the world—like the Initiative for Peace, the Public Interest Intellectual Property Advisors, and of course Nepal—offering its services in pursuit of promoting workable resolutions.”
